

JESUS AND THE PROMISED HOLY SPIRIT IN JOHN'S GOSPEL

A 5 Session Easter Bible Study

According to John's Gospel, Jesus promised that the Father would send the Holy Spirit. He made this promise during his farewell discourse and prayer at the Last Supper (John 13:31-17), and it was fulfilled at his Cross and Resurrection (John 19:30; 20:22). As we prepare for Pentecost, let us discover and ponder St. John's theology of the Holy Spirit.

Join us for a 5 week series on the Jesus and the Promised Holy Spirit in John's Gospel.

Presenter:

Sister Sara Butler, MSBT, S.T.L., Ph.D., has been a seminary professor of theology and is the a consultant to the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization.

During this 5 week Bible Study, participants will break open the Sacred Scriptures, read and reflect on the Gospel. Sister Sara will share insight on the promises of Jesus and how we are each called into a relationship with the Holy Spirit as we prepare for Pentecost. Free will offering.

Please register or call at least one day prior to session so adequate set up and materials can be prepared. Thank you!
